Case No. 5:99-cv-02240
Gwin, J.

On January 9, 2008, the Sixth Circuit affirmed this Court's June 8, 2006 judgment. Doc. [200.] On March 3, 2008, the Sixth Circuit issued a mandate stating the same. Doc. [201.]

On March 21, 2008, the United States moved the Court to enforce its June 8, 2006 judgment that the Sixth Circuit had recently affirmed. Doc. [202.] On March 31, 2008, Lomaz opposed the Plaintiff's motion and requested that the Court continue the stay it had previously entered because he planned to continue his appeal. Doc. [204.] He represented to the Court that he intended to file a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court. Id. The United States replied to the Defendant's opposition on March 31, 2008. Doc. [205.]

The United States offers no circumstances that render the Court's decision today different from its decision on September 18, 2006. Therefore, for the same reasons the Court granted the Defendant's initial request for a stay and bond pending appeal with its September 18, 2006 Order, the Court will continue the previously entered stay pending the outcome of the Defendant's appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Thus, for the reasons stated above, the Court DENIES the Plaintiff's motion to enforce the judgment at this time and continues its previously entered stay pending the Defendant's further appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
